Voluptuous beauty Ray Parker gives a touching, sensitive and sensual performance as Barbara, a classically repressed woman who is suddenly forced to confront the disturbing realities of modern day sexual liberation, as well as her own, even more shocking physical desires.

As the movie opens, Barbara and her husband are getting it on. But as hot as the sex gets between them, we soon find out that oil is not well. Her husband is uninhibited. He insists that they leave the light on. Barbara's modesty turns him off. She'll perform, but she hates being watched.

Her husband tells her one last time before leaving (singing for good). The fat stud lacks the patience to show his wife the way. What he craves is a certified sex freak, who'll perform any trick he desires. His wife is ripe and womanly, but passive and slow. He wants a chick who'll joyously leap on his prick and ride.

Now we meet the true object of Barbara's desires. (Although she doesn't know it yet), her Pussycat son Paul. Appearing as portrayed by Mike Ranges, he is a typical, happy-go-lucky young rock on the make. And with a delicious little chormer like Sherry (Dorothy Lofley) for a girl friend, Paul's got plenty to be happy and feel lucky about. Her ass-size pussy and cock-sucking mouth are all his.

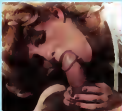

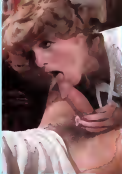

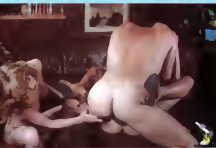

With his cock buried deep in sweet Sherry's hot mouth, our hero is feeling no pain. But when Sherry's girl friend Sue arrives, his pleasure is complete. Foamy Pearl plays the last-ditch fole, a young lady whose nimble cuffs. They suck his cock together, then Pearl sucks Sue's tight cuntballs. By the time Pearl's done with little Sue, she's screaming all over the place.

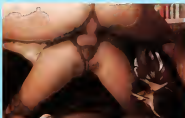

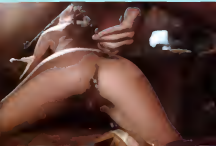

She rocks beneath the thrusts of Paul's engorged, pill-driving dick. She knows that this is what sex should be like. She feels her cockles like a horny eighteen year old should. Her nipples in between this leg to grasp his heavy balls. She strokes his tender cock and as his cock begins throbs then Paul pulls out and spoons her ass with his Barbosa calls her best friend Gina Charlotte Anderson to report that her husband has left her. She is incredibly happy. Gina is both sympathetic to and aroused by the idea of her friend being freeless and free to go again. Gina's two constant companions, a very young man and a glamorous Oriental girl, are only too happy to make love to her friends and each other from morning to night. Gina is very demanding, but her friends guess that her needs. The young man is a sex machine and the effect is a rocking boat.

Feeling as though her life is in a shambles, Barbara prepares herself to go out and look for a job. The last thing she wants is for her son to have to quit school in order to support them. She catches her looking at and even blushing her ripe beautiful body as she dresses. "Is it true?" Barbara wonders. "Am I really upright about sex? I am a little hesitant... but damn, I like getting turned!"

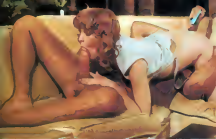

It's easy to see why Barbara is so attracted to her son Paul. He is one of those rare men who are both macho and sensitive. Barry is sensitive too, especially when Paul applies his long tongue to her clit. She wriggles when he frigs her and sweat soaks away by his deft, grinding touch. But she knows the best is yet to come when he gives her his huge cock to suck.

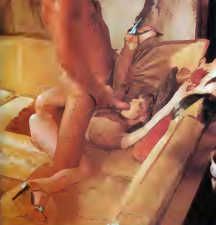

Sherry exhales again and again as Paul crams her quest with his cock. Then he yanks his dripping tool free and begins to fuck her face. He shoves his dick down Sherry's throat as firmly as he can. As he comes off in, she sucks it till the sparks comes shooting out. He smacks her lips, cheeks, throat and bouncing nipples with his cream.

Barbarella is shocked when the blind date (Gino) sets her up with folks that is an orgy (she'd wondered about Charlie's motives when he tried to feed her up in the car) after just being introduced. But she continued to believe he was taking her to a suburban cocktail party until they walked in the door. Now not even Barbarella can deny the truth. Not the people who drift by her are naked. Pretty young women are getting their tits squeezed and their pussies licked. Well hung studs are getting their big, meaty penises sucked everywhere she looks. People are actually fucking, without caring who looks on. Charlie begs Barbarella to join in the fun, but of course, she is bound to refuse. When he goes off in search of snatch, she reflects into herself that she can't shut her eyes to the hot, sexy action that's popping whenever she turns.

It's an orgy to end all orgies, a genuine circus of sex. Barbara is stunned to her partition door at the mass exhibition of lust. No sooner does she notice a couple, than they begin to fuck. And each combination results in mind-boggling gasp or squawking cunt. The spirit of screaming fills the air, as does its juicy sound.

When a hungry kid comes on to Barbara, she responds like a block of ice. "You're young enough to be my son," she says. But he doesn't care. First he tries to pull her skirt up. Then he grabs for her big, melon tits. Barbara mightily shuts them back into her dress and insists that he leave her alone. Fed up, the braced kid walks off in a huff to watch the others luck.

The orgy continues long into the night, getting wilder as it goes along. At last, the party culminates in a hot deluge of cum. One prick after another explodes with creamy jizz. The thick white fell on nipples and chests and butts and juicy tits. As the orgasms fly through the air, everyone but poor Barbara gets off.

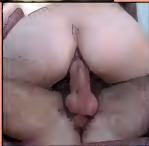

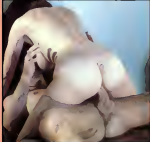

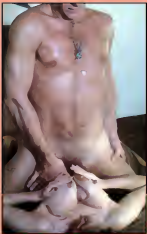

Something shops inside balloons offer an evening of watching other people suck. She gropes her way into Paul's room in the dark to fulfil her deepest need. As she looks off her sleeping Adonis-like son, his huge hard-on makes her cunt throb. She begins to gently fondle it. She brings it to her mouth. Then she wraps her lips around his swollen knob and starts to suck.

The following morning, she asks Paul to forget the night before. But he can't remember the way he fucked Barbara and dreamed in between her lush tits. Disheartened, Barbara tries to convince him that what they did was wrong. Paul tells her how foolish it is to regret a spontaneous act of love, especially one which resulted in such a spectacular cum.

Babette is eaten up with guilt of having seduced her own son. She confesses her dark deed to him. The result is just what you'd expect. The kinky blonde slut gets turned on by the tale and fags her hot cunt till she cums.

Young Paul can't wait to have another go at Barbara's feet. He wants to suck her tits and lick her pussy if she permits. His fingers creep between her thighs to spread her hot wet lips. He fingerfucks her. He tries to push the point of no return.

After getting her off with his outtonguing, Paul sprawls on his back on the bed. Beside her, he gives her a kiss. The lights are on, but this time Barbara doesn't even care. Her sole concern is giving Paul the freedom of her mouth. She gives him the longest and hottest deep throat he has ever received in his life.

How much his mother's tight squeeze bores him he gets her off again. Then he pulls his dripping stick out of her cunt and starts to shoot. Barbara moches with excitement as his sperm drips down on her tits. But she begs him to waste the last drops for her throat, which she uses to suck his stick clean.

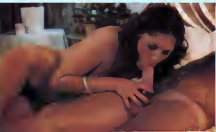

Paul is more than a little turned off when Barbarella has her new boss, Jerry, over for dinner. What Paul doesn't realize is just how determined Barbarella is never to make love to him again. Though Paul has reconstructed her sex drive, she comes from a man that over age

Barbara finds that love with Jerry, in her bedroom later on. She doesn't even get to shut the lights off when they sleep. The big tit beauty goes down on her with mouth to cock it with pleasure and just. She enters the land of the living as she lets Jerry's cock fuck her face Benjamin's psycho-sexual ordeal comes to an end as she attacks Jerry's dick with a complete lack of inhibition. She knows her brief and mad affair with Paul is over. But she rejoices in the fact that the flame it spit in her blood will continue to blaze for years to come, enabling her to thrill both her men and herself with delicious torments like this.
